Newsletter

October 2018

Welcome to your new Newsletter of the ESU Queensland. This quarterly newsletter will keep members up-to-date with what is happening at your ESU.

ANN GARMS

2018 has been a difficult and unsettling time for us all. Our beloved and dynamic President Ann Garms is no longer with us. Some people leave a large gap when they leave, and in Ann's case this gap is exceptional.

We will aim to continue her model of dynamic leadership, though doing this with anything like her charm and presence will be difficult.

BOARD APPOINTMENTS

Acting President: Emeritus Professor Roly Sussex has been elected Acting President until the AGM in November.

Secretary: The Board is delighted to welcome Jan Heffernan in the role of Secretary. Jan's experience and wisdom will be invaluable in this key role in the ESU.

ESU House. Cook Tce. Cnr Park Rd. & Coronation Dr. MILTON Qld 4064

BOARD MEMBERSHIP

The Board is interested in attracting energetic new members who are ready and able to make a dynamic contribution to the ESU. Prospective members are encouraged to contact the Acting President, Roly Sussex, on sussex@uq.edu.au. Board membership typically involves an average of 10 hours per month of work and activity related to the ESU.

ESU MEMBERSHIP

Members are encouraged to recommend the ESU and its work to friends, family and colleagues. Membership information and application forms are available on the website:

<http://www.esu.org.au/membership/>

Members are also reminded to renew their memberships promptly. Members must be financial to vote at the AGM.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Dialogue: ESU Queensland is starting a new event called “Dialogue”, where two speakers address a theme relevant to the mission of the ESU. The first Dialogue will be held at ESU House at 6pm on 4 November, with the title:

Will Britannia rules the waves again?

The speakers will be David Fagan and Roly Sussex.

We intend that there will be a number of Dialogue events in 2019, interspersed with lectures, the Churchill lecture, and other events.

Public Speaking Competition: Emeritus Professor Caroline Hatcher is coordinating the Intermediate and Junior classes. The heats and finals for the Intermediate and Junior categories will be held at ESU in October and November. The dates are listed below under “For your diary”. Members are warmly encouraged to attend.

Roly Sussex Short Story Competition: Judging is complete, under the direction of Emeritus Professor Peter Little as Chief Judge. The Governor has generously agreed to host a reception at Government House on 20 November for the presentation of the awards (by special invitation only). An announcement of the winners will be made shortly via the website.

AGM AND CHRISTMAS PARTY

The AGM will be held at ESU House at 4pm on 25th November. All members are urged to attend. You must be a financial member of the ESU to attend and vote. The agenda will be on the ESU website very shortly, together with a nomination form.

The AGM will be followed by the annual Christmas Party. Members will be circulated when arrangements are completed.

MOMANI'S RESTAURANT

The Momani restaurant has opened on the ground floor of the ESU. The owner, Ashley, welcomes ESU members to his new initiative. ESU Members will receive a discount of 10% on food. The Board has already enjoyed the menu, and warmly recommends Momani to members:

2019

For next year the new Board will be looking to continue the key events of ESU Brisbane, and to develop new initiatives in the dissemination of English language and culture. Members who have suggestions, or who would like to offer their services and input, should contact the Secretary, Jan Heffernan: mrsjmheff@gmail.com.
