

YOUR INVITATION
TO THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING UNION (QLD)
LITERARY EVENT FOR 2024

Cecily: I don't think you will require neckties. Uncle Jack is sending you to Australia.

Algernon: Australia! I'd sooner die.

—Oscar Wilde, The Importance of Being Earnest

You are invited to join performers from the Communication, Speech & Performance Teachers Inc. as they stage a night of wit and whimsy wonderfully devised by their association for the English-Speaking Union's Literary Event. The evening will showcase the similarities and differences between Australian and British humour.

Date: Friday 17 May 2024

Time: 6.00 pm to 8.30 pm

Venue: Miegunyah House Museum

35 Jordan Tce, Bowen Hills

Dress code: Smart casual

Cost: $65.00 members, $70.00 non-members, includes, canapes, slider, food bowl and two drinks (wine, beer, soft drink)

Email: office@esu.org.au if you have any dietary requirements or ramp access is required.

RSVP: For catering purposes it is essential that your reservation and payment be received by 9 May.

Payment details: Please pay by Humanitix –

<https://events.humanitix.com/esu-annual-literary-event-2024>

Communication,
Speech &
Performance
Teachers Inc.

QUEENSLAND BRANCH