

OUR ORIGIN STORY

The competition is named for long-time English-Speaking Union (Qld) member and its immediate past president, Professor Roly Sussex. Roly is an Emeritus Professor of Applied Language Studies at the University of Queensland and a leading champion of language and languages in Australia.

His ABC Radio program "A Word in Your Ear" has been running for 27 years. This prized literary award was launched in 2012 and fosters original creative writing of outstanding quality, including experimental, challenging or thought-provoking work.
